Commonly Asked Questions about becoming a Precinct Official

Q. What are the steps involved in becoming a precinct official?

A. First, you must be a registered voter in Cleveland County. Second, complete the application in this brochure and mail or return it to the address listed. Third, you will be contacted by our Precinct Official Coordinator to schedule a training session which will make you eligible to be placed as a worker for future elections.

Q. Is this a volunteer position?

A. No. Precinct officials get paid for their services. Starting July 1, 2024, the rate of pay per election will increase to: Inspectors $225 plus mileage, Clerks and Judges $200.

Q. What are the responsibilities of each precinct official position?

A. The INSPECTOR is responsible for picking up the supplies from the Election Board office before the Election and for returning them to the office on election night. The Inspector also contacts the Judge and Clerk before the election to confirm that they will be able to work. The JUDGE assists the voters in signing the precinct registry and checks Voters' Identification. The CLERK distributes the appropriate ballot(s) to the voter.

Q. What are the hours of work?

A. All precinct officials must be at their assigned polling place at 6:30 a.m. on election morning. The day ends sometime after 7:00 p.m., after the polls have closed, all ballots have been accounted for and all materials have been packed. Inspectors must transport supplies to the Election board office and their day ends once they have delivered them successfully.
